Thanks Rebecca this is helpful.

Just wanted to make sure I had the correct understanding/dates of everything that has been going on.

Thanks again,

Gerald

Hey Gerald,

After today, there are not any "major" aldicarb events on the calendar. We met as a team yesterday morning in preparation for the briefing with Alex this morning. There was a surprise meeting with Ed yesterday, too. Please see my calendar that I just shared.

We have a team meeting next Tuesday and a BEAD team scheduled that morning 12/1. Most of the work for BEAD is for SIAB. BAB seems to be in a holding pattern.

OCSPP IO and OPP IO are meeting with the registrant tomorrow. I don't think that there is anything else for now.

Feel free to write with more questions or to check in.
Rebecca

Hi Rebecca,

I hope you are doing well. I just wanted to check in and confirm any important dates for upcoming briefings. I know we have had several meeting and were waiting on follow ups with registrant and HED. Do you know if we have any briefing dates? Please let me know if you get a minute thanks in advance!

Gerald
